Dear Sol,

Recently I was in New Orleans and learned some new things.

Coinciding with the opening there of the movie "Exodus" George Lincoln Rockwell staged a demonstration that led to his arrest. Some of those who then helped him are now of great interest to me. I would appreciate it if you could let me know whether your people have a file on this and what I may have of it, in confidence, if they do.

One of those who helped him is said to have been Arnesto Rodriguez, Jr., who operates The Modern Languages Institute. Another is described as an English Nazi, Mike Slatter. Slatter, in one version, was deported. In another, he went to Spain and was denied readmission.

There is a connection with the late Guy Banister, one of the most violent racists in the country (some of whose files may still exist, if you know anyone who might want to try and see them; I might be able to help arrange it).

Kent Courtney is of more interest, as are those associated with him. Have you anything on his connections, especially with "agents" or "informants", particularly in France? Or, of those who worked for him, one Phil Boatright, a poet. His function was promotion.

Things are as they have been with us. Spring is swelling and about to burst. The grass shows color and soon things will be beautiful. Best to everyone, and thanks.

Sincerely,
